An Associated Press dispatch under date of Monday, May 30th, says that "Lieut. Newton A. McCully, U. S. N., recently naval attaché at Tokio, but ordered to observe the Russian fleet operations, is inside the Russian lines at Port Arthur. The other attaches were recently at 'Liao Yang.' Lieut. McCully is an Anderson man, and was detailed by the naval department at Washington at the beginning of the war in the East to watch the operations of the Russian fleet. This post was assigned him in recognition of his skill and ability in naval matters.

J. M. McAdams, of Antreville, sustained a severe loss by fire Wednesday morning. His two barns and two corn cribs, with considerable corn, forage, a buggy, a wagon, and farming implements, were completely destroyed. The loss is estimated to be between $1,500 and $2,000. The circumstances of the burning led Mr. McAdams to believe that the fire was of incendiary origin, and Sheriff Green was promptly notified. Deputy Sheriff Dillingham immediately left for Antreville and soon arrested two negro men and a negro woman, about whom suspicion gathered. The prisoners are now in the Abbeville jail.

An attractive booklet has just been issued containing a number of miscellaneous articles written by Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Bleckley while historian of the Anderson County Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, regent of the Catechee Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Anderson. The articles are very interesting and instructive, and Mrs. Bleckley has done a good service in having them published. The local history brought out in them needs to be preserved. These writings were collected and published at the request of her daughters.

Hon. Geo. E. Prince has returned from Barnwell, where he has for the past four weeks been presiding over a special term of court. The Barnwell people has this to say of him: "During the term Special Judge Prince was constantly and courteously considerate to jurors, witnesses, and all within his jurisdiction. Each week he excused considerable numbers of witnesses for reasons that commended themselves to him, but the county suffered no detriment, as the summoning of the new venire cost the county nothing. The roster is practically cleared, and Barnwell will not soon need another extra term. But when one is needed Special Judge Prince will prove even more acceptable than ever as its presiding officer."

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bowie and five bright children, of Iva, S. C., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Barr several days last week. Mr. Bowie favored The Sun office with a pleasant call. He is really and truly a progressive farmer and runs two mercantile establishments besides. He makes two bales of cotton to the acre on some of his land and wheat and other things in proportion. Is public-spirited; believes in good roads, good schools, and wants to see a trolley car run in front of his gate. Is optimistic and thinks this section of the South is bound to be the garden spot of the world when we get all the crookedness that are coming to us, in spite of all the croakers' evil prophesying that the country is on the down grade to the demdition bowwows.—Hartwell Sun.

The Board of Trustees of the city schools met Thursday afternoon and elected the corps of teachers for the coming year. Some of the old teachers did not apply for re-election, and there will be several changes in the assignments to the different schools and grades as a result. For the white schools the following will constitute next year's teaching force: John W. Linley, assisted by E. C. McCanta, A. W. Fogle, and Miss Isabel Wicker for the High School; for the intermediate grades E. M. McCown, principal, and Misses Nell Cochran, Emily Divver, Mary McCoy, May Russell, Mary Ligon, Mary Chapman, Ellen Gordon, Lenora Hubbard, Lottie Crosby, Anna Brown, Annie Clarke, Evie Lewis and Maggie Tribble. Miss Frances Wideman was elected teacher of music and drawing, and Miss Beulah Brown supply teacher. The next session will open about the middle of September.
